Moving towards India@75

IN FOCUS

Sankalp Se Siddhi: New India. New Resolve.

The Ministry of Culture, Government of India, Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) and India@75 Foundation, jointly organized a convention called “Sankalp Se Siddhi” on 23 April 2022 at Sushma Swaraj Bhawan, New Delhi.

The conference was conducted under the aegis of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav, the Government’s flagship initiative to commemorate India’s 75th year of Independence. Sectoral Ministries and Industry leaders came together to deliberate on the constituents and roadmap of an inclusively developed India by 2047. This visioning exercise was one of the several being conducted by CII as a part of its forward-looking initiative called India@75 and beyond.

The convention was well attended and saw the likes of Smt. Meenakashi Lekhi, Hon'ble Minister of State for External Affairs and Culture; Shri Ashwini Vaishnaw, Hon'ble Minister for Railways, Information Technology, Communications and Electronics; Shri Anurag Thakur, Hon'ble Minister of Information and Broadcasting, Youth Affairs & Sports and, several eminent names from the business fraternity. The conversations were along three broad themes:

- Celebrating India@75 and making way for India@100
- Leverage digital platforms to build a future-ready India

- Volunteer engagement strategy for India@100
